A friend of mine who serves a nearby church once commented that there should be a sign at the door welcoming, or perhaps warning: “Welcome to the Island of Misfit Toys!” You remember the Island of Misfit Toys—it’s where the elf who wants to be a dentist takes Rudolph (the red-nosed reindeer) as a last resort for guys like them who don’t exactly fit in the world of “normal.” It’s a place that welcomes you no matter what you look like or how your parts are put together, mismatched or otherwise.

Well, I don’t know for sure about the church my friend serves, but I think it’s a pretty apt metaphor for any church I’ve come to know well, and this church in particular. I can look out at the people gathered on any given Sunday and see the most unlikely, imperfect wonderful bunch of broken, mismatched, messed up people of God the world has known. And yes, I may be referring to you. I hope you’re not offended.

I for one consider it an honor to live and work among the world’s nerds, misfits, needy and broken people. Because I am one. I am one, and I am known by a God who has been one and favors just such brokenness in the world. This is the greatest story ever told: how God saves the world through people like you and me—a most unlikely collection of misfit toys. The church. And our motto here at the church of misfit toys:

*“My grace is sufficient for you,
 for power is made perfect in weakness.” Cor. 12:9*

Thank you for being just the way you are. May we continue to welcome others likewise!

School for Congregational Learning
August 28, 8:30 a.m. to 3:45 p.m.
West Des Moines Christian Church

The School for Congregational Learning is a great opportunity to gather with other Disciples from around the region, hear stories, share resources, and seek both inspiration and practical ideas for church life. This year's school is gathering at West Des Moines Christian Church, and is open to all. At $20 per registration, it's a great bargain, and Covenant Christian has money in its budget to cover your expenses. So, please consider gathering with us!

Some of the workshops offered include:

- Sunday Morning Hospitality
- Kids Against Hunger
- How to Get the Most of your Meetings
- Elders in the 21st Century

The event also includes great worship, fellowship, and of course, FOOD!

Karen Vroman and Don Hiscox
Mission to Poland

Karen and Don are joining 14 others from our Region on a mission trip to Poland. They'll be gone August 29 – September 16. In Poland, they'll be working with our Global Mission Partners, Doug and Liz Searles. The main construction project they'll be working on is replacing crumbling steps and building a handicap ramp for one of Doug and Liz's churches. Sixteen hundred dollars of the $3,000.00 needed for materials for the project have been contributed by those going on this trip. Contributions from Covenant folks are welcome. Anyone interested in making a contribution can write a check payable to Covenant and note it is for the Poland Mission Trip. Additional information will be shared during announcements on future Sunday mornings.

Save these Dates...

Friday, August 6: We prepare dinner for Children and Families Urban Ministry.

September 19 – 26: Interfaith Hospitality Network hosting at Urbandale UCC.

Calling All Ladies of Covenant

Wed., Aug. 18, 6:00 p.m., Book Club will host a light supper for all Covenant women. It will be an evening of fellowship and brain-storming ideas for Covenant women's activities.

THANK YOU FROM THE EVANGELISM TEAM!!!!!!

A BIG THANKS to those who helped to make Covenant's participation in the Urbandale Parade a success. Included are those who worked on our new banner, pennants, and postcards, those who donated cash, candy, water and decorations, those who loaned wagons, those who helped decorate wagons, those who marched, and those who cheered us on. During the parade, we were able to distribute around 700 postcards promoting Covenant, 100 lbs of candy, and some of the 130 donated bottles of water.
